NO THIRD TERM.

Under this caption the Lyon County Times has the following sensible article:

We have it upon pretty good authority that some of our State officials are laying plans for their reelection to a third term. All men whether Republican or Democrats should discountenance and defeat any such aspirations, and we believe, that the Republican press and voters, will nip this little scheme while it is yet in the bud. There are many able men in the Republican party to select from who have not held offices, just as well, if not better qualified to fulfill the duties pertaining to any of the State offices as those who have fattened at the public expense and have such a death grip on the public test. Let there be rotation in office, or at least when it gets to third termism we most emphatically say stop.

The above article will be accepted as a correct idea by nine tenths of the party. "Rotation in office" has been the watchword of the party for years. Even as great a man as Grant could not get the nomination for a third term, and if he could not how can any lesser light be ambitious enough to think that success would crown such an attempt. The moment you give office holders a life lease of office and have such an idea recognized, then the incentive for active party work is lost to the rank and file. Men who work all their lives for the party deserve recognition and reward. Let it go out that there is to be no such reward for party work and party fealty, and the workers will become discouraged. A man who has had two terms of office holding is apt to think that the office could not be run without him, but oddly enough he did not think that the office could not be run without his successor.

"Welcome the coming, speed the parting guest," applies to offices as well as houses. The party is full of good, capable men, give them a chance.

THE TRIBUNE AND THE LEAGUE.

On Saturday night the Executive Committee of the Anti Chinese League reported a resolution to the effect that the Tribune had treated the League unfairly, and that no member of the League ought to patronize the paper. The resolution was adopted by the League.

As the proprietor of the APPEAL is a member of the Executive Committee of the League an explanation is necessary.

Some months ago a proposition was broached in the Committee to boycott the Tribune. The proprietor of the APPEAL opposed the idea and stated as his reason for so doing, that he didn't wish to take his business into the League, and that should he do so it would place him in the light of one who was trying to crush out a business rival through the instrumentality of the League.

These exceptions were, at the time, considered well taken and the matter was dropped.

At the last meeting of the Committee the subject was again broached and the resolution adopted by the League was formulated.

The proprietor of the APPEAL was not present at this meeting, and for the reasons above stated took no part in the Committee's work. It is a matter of regret to us that the relations between the League and all the papers of the city could not have been more harmonious.

In a divorce case at Carmel, New York, the husband maintains that he has been a sufferer from his wife's literary tastes and accomplishments. She reads, writes and plays the piano until the husband alleges that his life is a burden. He thinks he is entitled to a divorce on the grounds of abandonment.

The Sentinel alludes to Mr. Swinburn's poetry as hog-wash. If the Sentinel man could write this same hog-wash he would be getting $15,000 a year a sum which might perhaps be something of an improvement upon the present sum paid him for the forcible and elegant writings which appear daily in the base range organ.
